SACHEM PARK SAVED FOR FANS.

Local Baseball Promoters Act in Time—Outline, Season Ticket Plan for Financial Support—Bulletin Duck-pickers Win—Jeffries Appears at Exhibition.

Now that Dennis Hayes, George P. Madden and E. E. Coffey, who have been the local board of strategy in furthering the plan to provide this city with a baseball park for the coming summer, have embarked upon the enterprise, securing a place for the new team of the new Connecticut baseball association, which seems destined to be known otherwise as the Trolley league, the faning bees have started, and the local followers of the game are beginning to pick out their favorite spots on the bluffs and in the grandstand. There is speculation, too, as to what kind of baseball the new league will produce, but as for that Dennis and the other two say: "Leave it to us. It will be right."

The three Norwich men stepped in just in time to save the Sachem park grounds from the clutches of a big vote of thanks from the baseball public and the business men of the town. Unless the park was used for league baseball, St. Patrick's parish, which owns the property, was ready to dispose of all the fixtures and add the grounds to the extension of the Catholic cemetery. Now, however, the parish will donate the park to the league, and the game will be played at the old familiar stampering grounds.

With Sachem park gone, all chances for league baseball here would have been shoved into the remote future, for to get a new park and equip it would have meant the outlay of several thousand dollars as a starter. The prospect of the new league, however, is bright, for this way, now comes in the chance of the Norwich fans and business men to do the most on the financial side by turning it out. Mr. Hayes said Sunday night that they ought to have at least $500 in the treasury to start with. To raise this money they proposed to sell season tickets at $10 per, and there should be a large number of them. The fans will buy tickets, and then they are counting upon various business houses adding to the subscription lists for the sake of the advertising and business that the team will bring to the city. With the three men to the rescue, it is assumed all the troublesome work of conducting the team, it is now up to the fans and the home public to give them the needed financial support both before and during the season.

YOUNG WILBUR WINS.
 Straight Falls on Kid Wilkerson—Over an Hour of Wrestling.

At Waverly hall, Sean Hill, on Saturday night, Young Wilbur of Montville won the wrestling match with Kid Wilkerson of Lowell, Mass., in two straight falls. The first bout was a long one, with Wilkerson on the mat most of the time, but after one hour and 11 minutes Young Wilbur pinned him to the mat with a head scissor and arm lock.

After a rest of five minutes the men again wrestled. This time Young Wilbur showed his staying power and science over the Lowell boy by pinning him to the mat in four minutes 35 seconds, using the same hold as in the first bout. The crowd was very enthusiastic and the referee was pleased with the match. Louis Burdick of Fitchville was in Young Wilbur's corner. Bill Collins of the Village for Wilkerson. Dan Marra, the ballplayer was referee, and gave satisfaction. G. V. Allen was timekeeper.

SATURDAY MARKETS.
 Prices Advanced at Opening, but Were Mostly Lost, Later.

New York, Feb. 19.—10.10. A. M.—The opening stock market showed some hesitation under the influence of lower prices for Americans in the London market. The market was generally restricted to small transactions.

11 A. M.—Active trading in Union Pacific and United States Steel introduced a strong tone to the whole market and prices advanced, except for Reading, which met enough stock to keep it close to yesterday's last price. The trunk of the stock followed up their rise of yesterday. New York Central, Erie, 122 and Pennsylvania 134 3/8. The market sold off a fraction later.

Closing.—The market closed weak. The resulting movement which closed Reading 2 1/2 under last night turned prices downward. Earlier gains were mostly wiped out.
